Welcome and Introductions

Expert Panel on Early Childhood Service and Policy Development

Across the nation and Pennsylvania, there is increasing recognition that it is critical to meet the needs of young children, especially those with special needs. Pennsylvania is responding to concerns over the needs of young children through practice, planning, and policy initiatives. RCPA has invited a panel of experts and leaders engaged in creating the future shape and structures for the health, education, and human services for young children, their families, and communities.
