Words of Encouragement from National Alliance of Direct Support Professionals

During this particularly challenging time, we would like to share some positive resources, this one is directed to the DSP's who continue to provide essential services to people in the community.

Words of Encouragement

A New Series on the NADSP Point of Interaction Blog

Last week in our Facebook Group, we shared a hilarious and heart warming video of our colleague David Pitonyak of Imagine sharing words of encouragement for Direct Support Professionals. The video has quickly become one of our top videos on YouTube. In that spirit, starting today NADSP will be sharing a video from one of our partners each week with words of encouragement for Direct Support Professionals. As you continue your essential work in supporting people with disabilities, we want to remind you that you are not alone and you are valued for the incredible work you do.

This week, we are starting with words of encouragement from Stephen "Dr. Bird" Birchak. People may remember Dr. Bird from the 2019 NADSP Annual Conference where he was our first Keynote Speaker. Many were enamored with Dr. Bird's humor and positive outlook. In Dr. Bird's video on our blog, he shares a story of gratitude from one of his former students.
