IDD Residential Providers Share Incentives offered to DSP's during COVID-19

Residential providers are asking even more than usual of the Direct Support Professionals who are critical to providing services to individuals in the community during these challenging times. Our members are grateful to the staff who show up everyday to provide support to individuals during the pandemic, even when those they support are ill with COVID-19. During our recent IDD Residential Sub-committee meeting, our members shared ideas of how they are showing their appreciation to those employees. We are sharing a summary of strategies that some of our members have implemented. If you have ideas you are willing to share, please email Carol Ferenz.
