Together@Home: Resources for Youth and Families

Tuesday, May 19, 2020
5:30 p.m. to 8:45 p.m.

Together@Home: Resources for Youth and Families is a virtual conference designed specifically for families and students to finish the school year strong.

- Presenters will offer twenty-minute sessions to assist with learning in a virtual environment.
- Several sessions have been specially designed just for students.
- An opening keynote by the Director of the Bureau of Special Education, Ms. Carole Clancy, will set the stage for the importance of strong family and student commitment.
- Marc Elliot, author and national presenter, will close the conference with an inspirational message on finding your strength.

Plan on joining this conference to learn about resources for virtual learning environments. Registration will be available beginning Monday, May 11, at <https://www.pattan.net/events/>
