

OVR Business Services Model

Effective Placement and Business Strategies for Business Outreach Professionals

A training announcement from the Pennsylvania Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR), Office of Long-Term Living (OLTL), Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (OMHSAS), and Office of Developmental Programs (ODP).

Part I - August 13th, 1:00 pm

Register for Part I

If you assist job seekers with disabilities in getting employment, we invite you to join us on August 13, 2020, at 1:00 pm to learn about effective strategies for getting your job seekers job ready. Bridget Frascella and Rob Hodapp from the PA Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR) will discuss effective ways to assess customer skills and overcome barriers to employment; Benefits Disincentives, Health and Disability status, Transportation Issues, Criminal Records and Disability Disclosure. Representatives from the PA Office of Long-Term Living, Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, and Office of Developmental Programs will be available for discussion and questions.

Part II - August 26th, 2:00 pm

Register for Part II

Professionals who assist job seekers with disabilities are invited to learn about effective ways of connecting with businesses to get your consumers employed. On August 26, 2020, at 2:00 pm, Bridget Frascella and Rob Hodapp from the PA Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR) will discuss business engagement strategies that will get you connected and keep you connected. Learn about employer expectations in partnerships, keys things to focus as you're building a business relationship, learning and leveraging business language and utilizing OVR as a partner to provide workplace solutions for businesses; disability awareness trainings, accessibility analysis, accommodation solutions and more. Representatives from the PA Office of Long-Term Living, Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services, and Office of Developmental Programs will be available for discussion and questions.

Certificates of Attendance will be Issued after the completion of each session