

Direct Support Recognition Week is Coming in September

From ANCOR:

#DSPRW2020

The DSP Recognition Week Store is OPEN!

Order by Tuesday, August 18 to ensure items arrive prior to DSP Recognition Week

Direct Support Professional Recognition Week is an annual celebration of the amazing DSPs who support people with disabilities every day, and this year the celebrations will take place September 13-19! Though we are grateful to DSPs every day, this week is set aside as a national observance of their importance, dedication, hard and innovative work to support the dreams, aspirations, and community inclusion of people with disabilities.

This year, through the myriad challenges brought about by the COVID-19 pandemic, we are especially grateful to this invaluable workforce. To help get you ready for this celebration we have brought back the DSP Recognition Week Store! In this year's Store, you'll find popular favorites such as t-shirts and bags, more varieties of popular items from previous years like tumblers and thermoses, and a few new items including face masks, hand sanitizer and a stainless steel straw kit!

2020 DSP Recognition Week

September 13–19

*Shop the DSP Recognition Week Store

Shop here

* Order by August 18 to guarantee arrival of items prior to September 13

Keep in mind that shipping companies are coping with demands of mass non-contact purchasing, so the deadline to order to guaranteed receipt of items prior to the start of DSP Recognition Week is the end of day Tuesday, August 18, 2020. Orders will be accepted after this date, but may incur additional shipping fees or may not arrive before the start of DSP Recognition Week on September 13.

Start shopping today!

