

Governor Wolf Signs Proclamation DSP Appreciation Week: September 13-19, 2020

Direct Support Professionals (DSPs) assist, support, and care for individuals who require help in their daily lives and routines. The week of September 13 -19 is a chance to honor the contributions our DSPs make during Direct Support Professionals Recognition Week. Governor Wolf issued a proclamation to bring awareness to the extraordinary contributions these individuals make in the lives of the elderly, veterans, and those with intellectual, developmental, or other disabilities.

Please share with us what your organization is doing to recognize your staff so we can share your stories!
