

ODP Announces Behavioral Support Services Innovation Panels

Remote Assessment and Data Collection

December 16, 2020 from 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

This pandemic has forced us all to think more creatively about how to maintain important components of the Behavioral Support Services. A panel of Behavioral Support Service Providers will present their innovations for engaging in remote assessment and data collection, highlighting their models to conduct Functional Behavioral Assessments and monitor data. Opportunities to engage with and ask questions of these panelists will be provided.

Register for this session here.

General Remote Behavioral Support Services

December 22, 2020 from 1:00 pm - 2:30 pm

This pandemic has forced us all to think more creatively about how to maintain important components of the Behavioral Support Services. A panel of providers will present their innovations for engaging in general remote Behavioral Support Services, highlighting their models to provide this necessary service. Opportunities to engage with and ask questions of these panelists will be provided.

Register for this session here.