

Next Course Begins January 5th, 2020

Registration is open for the next live virtual training course on intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD) for mental health mobile crisis responders. This is one of three courses in the MHIDD Professional Development Series offered by the Center for START Services. It is highly recommended for the following providers:

- Mobile Crisis Responders, Clinicians & Supervisors
- Mental Health and/or IDD Case Managers /Service Coordinators
- Emergency Services Clinicians

The course consists of 6 webinar-style sessions (75 minutes each) that teach best practices in crisis assessment, response, and disposition recommendations. Registration is $149 per person and participants can receive University of New Hampshire Continuing Education Units and a Certificate of Completion for MHIDD Mobile Crisis Response Training.

Participant feedback from previous courses:

“I was able to take the training information into my crisis work immediately.”

“Case vignettes and worksheets were relatable and engaging, allowing for the application of learned material.”

“The presenter's style was engaging. He broke material down into terms someone new to the field could understand.”

“The material is perfect for taking back and utilizing in my every day work and that's very exciting.”

“The training has helped me assist more confidently during emergency assessments.”

Learn More & Register

The Center for START Services is a program of the University of New Hampshire Institute on Disability 57 Regional Drive, Concord, NH 03301 | (603) 228-2084 | start.iod@unh.edu

www.centerforstartservices.org