

Submit a Presentation Proposal

Drexel's Division of Behavioral Healthcare Education invites you to submit an abstract for a 60-minute workshop for the 29th Annual Virtual Forensic Conference. The workshop will consist of 50 minutes of presentation and 10 minutes for Q&A.

Presentation proposals are encouraged to illustrate this year's theme:

The Power of Opportunity – Creating Growth Through Effective Mental Health Supports

Please note: The deadline to submit proposals is August 31, 2021. We hope you will join us as we venture into this new and exciting experience!

Please provide the following information via email to Donna McNelis, dm44@drexel.edu. Information can be typed directly below and submitted as an MS Word document.

1. Provide the title of your workshop:
2. Provide the name, degree, position, agency, address, phone number and email address of each presenter.
3. Describe your proposal in 60-75 words. This description will be used on the online brochure. It should be clear, concise, and specific. Be sure to address all the educational objectives required per the attachment below.
4. List three educational objectives for your presentation using the guidelines attached.
5. List the level of the presentation: Introductory/Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced or All
6. Please provide a one-page resume or CV of each presenter.
7. List nominations for the Forensic Rights and Treatment Conference Award (see the APA guidelines for details).
8. Do you prefer a live webinar or a pre-recorded webinar? Underline one.

Please note these basic IT requirements and best practices for your presentation:

- Wired connection to internet or strong wireless connection.
- Camera via computer or external device
- Microphone via computer or external device

- Presentation environment and background: ensure your presentation environment is free of unwanted clutter or external distractions that could interfere with our presentation or audience viewing.

All presenters will be able to attend the full conference free of charge.

Please note: All proposals will be considered, but only a limited number can be selected. Notifications of proposal acceptance will be emailed September 27, 2021.
