

2021 James E. Anderson PENNSYLVANIA Conference on Juvenile Justice Presented Virtually - November 3-5, 2021

Pennsylvania Juvenile Justice: Building Strong Alliances with Youth, Families, Victims, and Communities

This year we will present our entire conference virtually, complete with a LIVE Awards Ceremony, Plenaries, Workshops, and a Virtual Exhibitors directory! We hope that you are available to join us, FREE of charge, from the comfort of your own space.

Registration is FREE, and Opens: Friday, October 1, 2021

Wednesday, November 3

Professional Caucuses	1:00—2:30 PM
Chief/Service Provider Forum	2:45—4:00 PM
Judges & Hearing Officers Training	1:00—4:15 PM

Thursday, November 4

Opening Plenary	9:00—10:15 AM
-----------------	---------------

James P. Harris, Jr., the current Superintendent of the Woodland Hills School District in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania will discuss building relationships and creating an environment conducive of positive youth development.

Workshops will be offered on Thursday, 10:30—11:45 AM and Friday, 9am—10:15 AM.
The workshops feature a wide range of topics, including:

- Social Media Addiction
- The Role of Context and Culture in Evidence-Based Practices Implementation
- The Role of Courts and Probation in Delinquency Diversion and Prevention
- Restorative Justice in Practice
- Cultural Competency
- The Workplace Connection on Staff Engagement, Productivity, and Retention
- Continuous Quality Improvement: A Probation and Provider Partnership
- The Pennsylvania Academic, Career, and Technical Training Project
- Restorative Justice in Practice
- The FirstMatch Program
- Ten Years of the Standardized Program Evaluation Protocol (SPEP™) in Pennsylvania
- The Juvenile Justice Task Force
- Autism Awareness for Juvenile Justice Professionals
- Understanding Adolescent Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity Issues

41st Annual Awards Program 1:30—3:30 PM

Friday, November 5

Closing Plenary	10:30—Noon
-----------------	------------

Dr. Brian Lovins, PhD., a Principal with the consulting group, Justice System Partners, will deliver a closing session that will inspire participants to re-center on the purpose behind the implementation of system reforms and evidence-based practices.