6/27/2022	11:00 AM - 12:00 PM	Putting Resources into Practice: Responsibilities of Service Categories in the Adult Autism Waiver (AAW)	This training is for AAW providers. Goals are an important way to keep everyone on the team on track and focused. Do you know your role and responsibility related to goals and everything that supports reaching goals like objectives, Goal Attainment Scaling (GAS) charts, and Quarterly Progress Notes (QPN)? This training will review an updated resource about this topic and will provide examples to illustrate good goal development and monitoring. There will also be time after the session to answer any additional questions you might have.	AAW Providers	Columbus GoTo
6/28/2022	1:00 PM - 2:00 PM	Creativity and Critical Thinking: Use it or Lose It (Virtual Targeted Training [VTI])	If you were given a million dollars to ensure the person you support has the best day, what would that day look like? Would you do the same thing you do now or would you think outside the box? Creativity and critical thinking are two skills that require ongoing use and practice. Without those skills, you may become stuck and unmotivated to do better - especially in supporting someone to have that best day. This training will explore creativity and critical thinking to apply to your personal life and the people you support.	AAW Providers	Columbus GoTo
