FAMILYLINKS NAMES CARLY CAMPBELL CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Pittsburgh, PA (January 6) – Familylinks announced the appointment of Carly Campbell to the role of Chief Financial Officer (CFO). Campbell brings 20+ years of financial and operational experience to Familylinks’ executive team. As CFO, Campbell will provide strategic leadership to maximize the reach and impact of services while maintaining long-term financial sustainability.

“Carly’s experience in non-profit and corporate finance and administrative leadership roles as well as her compassion for the non-profit sector made her a standout candidate in the search process” said Stacey Vaccaro, president and CEO of Familylinks. “Additionally, Carly’s humble nature, succinct communication style, creativity and sense of humor make her a great fit for our team.”

Prior to joining Familylinks, Campbell was the CFO at Rebuilding Together Pittsburgh where she oversaw finance, human resources and administration to ensure operational success. Prior to that, Campbell was the Director of Finance and Administration at StreamWeaver.

“I am thrilled to be joining the Familylinks team,” said Campbell. “The agency’s depth and breadth of services is unparalleled and I look forward to contributing my skills and talents to further Familylinks’ essential mission.”

Campbell earned a Bachelor of Arts in Administration and Accounting from Waynesburg University.

In her free time, Campbell enjoys spending time with her family, curling up with a good book, being outdoors, and doing anything that engages her critical thinking.
