

Let's Speak Up About Getting your Own place!

Have you thought about getting your own place?
We want to hear from you!

Join our listening session:
Wednesday August 23, 2023
7:00-8:00pm

Join us to Speak Up! Tell us what YOU think about housing. Help us learn what is important to people with disabilities and their allies. Share what worries you when thinking about your own place. Tell us what you think may be easy or hard. Give us your ideas on getting your own place. What you think matters!

Get the passcode from Rita anytime before the event!
Call 724 588 2378 or Email power@sau1.org
The day of the event, go online at sau1.me/zoom then enter the passcode.

Self Advocates United as 1 (SAU1) is a PA non profit led by people with disabilities, for people with disabilities. SAU1's mission is to support the self advocacy of people with disabilities for positive impact in our communities and in people's lives.

SAU1 is proud to be working with Families CCAN on this project to help people with disabilities and their allies learn more about housing.

This project is funded by the Pennsylvania Developmental Disabilities Council.