

TRAUMA-SENSITIVE PROFESSIONAL

Participants in this course may earn LGI's title of Certified Trauma-Sensitive Professional. We believe that participants who meet course requirements demonstrate increased levels of compassion for the impact of trauma. Participants can identify key elements of many traumas and the impact of each.

REQUIREMENTS

- Full attendance required. If sessions are missed, a description of the content and information in the curriculum, must demonstrate familiarity with the concepts from all sessions.
 - All reading from required texts.
- Successful completion of in-class presentations.
 - Presentation of a case study.
 - Satisfactory feedback from the facilitators.
- Signing a covenant agreement to adhere to the standards, values and expectations of a Certified Trauma-Sensitive Professional.

*This 50-hour course is held in-person or live via a web-based platform.
There are 20 sessions (2.5 hours each).*