

Dual Diagnosis Professional Conference Series

Revolutionizing Care: How Telehealth and Assistive Tools are Changing the Game for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD)

March 12, 2025, 10:00 am – 12:00 pm

What is the Dual Diagnosis Professional Conference Series?

The Department of Human Services' Office of Developmental Programs (ODP) and the Office of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services (OMHSAS) are pleased to announce the Dual Diagnosis Professional Conference Series, which offers presentations focused on supporting individuals with intellectual disabilities and autism (ID/A) and mental health needs. The selected presenters share their expertise on best and promising practices as well as provide general knowledge. Session topics, which focus on increasing capacity to serve individuals with dual diagnosis in the community, are chosen based on identified needs and with input from the field of professional stakeholders.

- The invited audience of all professional stakeholders, including direct and clinical supporters for individuals with ID/A are encouraged to attend.
- Registration is required and at no charge to attendees.
- Two (2) hours of training credit and a certificate of achievement are provided.

Revolutionizing Care: How Telehealth and Assistive Tools are Changing the Game for People with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD)

March 12, 2025, 10:00 am – 12:00 pm

DESCRIPTION

In this presentation, Dr. Maulik Trivedi will explore how specialized telehealth and assistive technologies are transforming healthcare for individuals with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (IDD). The presenter will discuss how these tools work, their real-world benefits, and how they can enhance health outcomes, support direct support professionals (DSPs), individuals and families and improve efficiency for agencies. You'll also learn how these solutions are easy to implement and what the future holds for technology-driven IDD care. Whether you're a provider, caregiver, or advocate, this session will offer insights and practical strategies to help integrate these innovations into daily care.
