McAULEY MINISTRIES ANNOUNCES THE 2025 SISTER SUSAN WELSH GOOD NEIGHBOR AWARD HONOREES

PITTSBURGH (January 19, 2026) – McAuley Ministries, the grant-making foundation of Pittsburgh Mercy, is proud to announce the recipients of the 2025 Sister Susan Welsh Good Neighbor Award: Erikka B. Grayson and Belinda “Ms. Bee” Upsher.

Established in 2019, the award honors residents of Pittsburgh’s Hill District, Uptown, and West Oakland, the three communities historically served by the Sisters of Mercy and now envisioned as the Mercy Corridor. The award recognizes individuals who exemplify what it means to be a “good neighbor” through volunteerism, community organizing, and acts of kindness. Each year, two honorees are selected – one young adult (ages 18-39) and one adult (ages 40 and over).

Grayson and Upsher were chosen for their outstanding leadership and selfless acts of kindness that continue to transform lives and foster unity in our communities.

Erikka B. Grayson

Nominated by Ashley Comans and Dr. Margaret Starkes, Erikka Grayson is a lifelong Hill District resident whose leadership spans education, youth development, and family advocacy. She serves as senior director of the Estelle S. Campbell Boys & Girls Club, overseeing programs that support hundreds of young people, and was recently elected Pittsburgh Public Schools board director for District 3. Her community-centered initiatives include founding Bomb Moms, a platform that uplifts and connects mothers, and leading culturally responsive literacy programs through the Margaret Washington Literacy & Inclusion Center.

“Erikka is someone who embodies leadership, compassion, and vision in everything she does,” said nominator Ashley Comans. “She approaches every role with integrity and has consistently gone above and beyond to ensure children, families, and the community as a whole are uplifted and supported.”

In response to receiving the award, Grayson stated, “I am deeply honored and humbled to be recognized as a 2025 Sister Susan Welsh Good Neighbor Award recipient. My work has always been rooted in service to children, families, and community – particularly in the Hill District.”

She continued, “Each of these roles has reinforced my belief that lasting change happens when we invest in children early and show up consistently for families. This recognition reflects the collective work of a village committed to equity, opportunity, and compassion, and I am truly grateful.”

Belinda “Ms. Bee” Upsher

Nominated by Candice Gormley and Nadine Masagara-Taylor, Belinda “Ms. Bee” Upsher has devoted decades of service to the West Oakland community. Formerly a childcare provider, she now serves as the community outreach coordinator at The Corner Community Center. Known for her boundless generosity, Upsher is the founder of the Warming Center and Breakfast Program for children at local bus stops. She also launched a community closet offering free clothing and household items, and regularly volunteers at monthly food distributions. Upsher’s work extends beyond her formal roles, as she is a trusted presence in the neighborhood, frequently volunteering as a crossing guard and supporting families in need.

“Ms. Bee is the definition of what it means to be a good neighbor,” said nominator Nadine Masagara-Taylor. “She rises to the occasion to meet the needs of others without expecting anything in return.”

Reflecting on the honor of receiving the Sister Susan Welsh Good Neighbor Award, Upsher shared, “This award represents more than a moment of recognition – it reflects the power of kindness in action. Being a good neighbor means choosing compassion, showing up without being asked, and creating a space where others feel seen, safe, and supported. True winning is not measured by personal success alone, but by the positive impact we leave on the lives around us. I am deeply honored to be recognized for simply doing what comes from the heart: serving with integrity, leading with empathy, and believing that when one of us rises, we all do.”
